

BIN SCABS

EXT. SCHOOLYARD - DAY

Austin, standing alone in the school yard, drops a piece of litter. Parker, walking past, notices and looks appalled.

PARKER

What the hell?

AUSTIN

Huh?

PARKER

Who do you think is going to pick that up?

Austin gives a shrug.

AUSTIN

I dunno. The bin scabs?

PARKER

The bin scabs?!

AUSTIN

The people who get in trouble. They get detention and go 'round picking up rubbish. What's the problem?

PARKER

The problem? You're the problem, you piece of trash.

AUSTIN

Settle down, Captain Planet.

Parker steps closer, raising a finger to punctuate the argument.

PARKER

We're pretty much guaranteed to hit two degrees of global warming. The Pacific garbage patch is growing daily and you're still dropping your rubbish in the school yard. Are you for real?

AUSTIN

Uh...

PARKER

Pick it up.

AUSTIN

Yuck. No.

PARKER

Pick. It. Up.

AUSTIN

What's your deal?

PARKER

You might just think I'm an environment nerd...but what I have is a very particular set of skills, skills acquired over a very long career of caring for our fragile ecosystem, skills that make me a nightmare for scum like you.

AUSTIN

Okay, fine...I'll pick it up. Jeez.

AUSTIN picks up the rubbish and deposits it in a nearby bin.

PARKER

(Innocently)

Thank you.

PARKER turns suddenly and skips away.
