

FRANKENSTEIN

EXT. HIGH SCHOOL - DAY

Jessica and Will sit at a bench. Will is reading a copy of the movie magazine Empire. JESSICA is reading Frankenstein by Mary Shelley. She puts her copy of the book down on the table.

JESSICA

Frankenstein is such a tragic character.

WILL

(snorts)

Yeah...imagine having bolts in your neck.

JESSICA

Ugh. That's not Frankenstein, that's Frankenstein's monster.

WILL

What do you mean? Frankenstein is the green guy with the bolts in his neck.

JESSICA

No, he's not...Frankenstein is the doctor who created the monster.

WILL

No way. I've seen the movie. The monster's name is Frankenstein.

JESSICA

Ugh. You really need to read more books.

WILL

And you need to watch more horror movies.

JESSICA

I know horror movies, thank you very much.

WILL

Okay, then...who's the killer in "Friday the 13th"?

JESSICA

Jason Voorhees. Everyone knows that.

WILL

Wrong!

Will slams his magazine down on the table and stands up.

WILL

It was Pamela Voorhees. Jason's mother.

JESSICA

Pretty sure it was the dude with the hockey mask.

WILL

My god. You probably think 'The Ring' was a romantic comedy.

JESSICA

Well... at least we can agree that Frankenstein's monster is one of the most iconic characters in film and literature.

WILL sits back down.

WILL

A misunderstood creature looking for acceptance in a world that rejects him.

JESSICA

Kind of like high school, really.

They continue reading.

FADE OUT.
