

TWITCHY

QUINN

I think I got about three hours sleep last night.

ALEX

How are you even standing?

QUINN paces some more, crossing to Alex's left.

QUINN

Energy drinks, my friend, the secret to cramming this play—

QUINN holds up a copy of Romeo and Juliet.

QUINN

—into my head.

ALEX

Guess that explains why you're so twitchy.

QUINN

I might be twitchy but I've memorised every word in this stupid play. I'm guaranteed to get a good grade.

ALEX

Education is more than just numbers. We can learn a lot from Romeo and Juliet.

QUINN

(appalled)

Like what?

ALEX

Its themes are timeless. It teaches us about the intensity of emotions, the consequences of impulsive decisions—

QUINN

If I don't get a decent grade on this exam, my parents are going to make an impulsive decision...an impulsive decision to murder me.

ALEX

Exactly my point.

QUINN

What?

ALEX

Among other things, Romeo and Juliet explores the crushing weight of parental expectation...wait...what are you doing?

QUINN has opened the notepad and is scribbling feverishly.

QUINN

'Crushing weight of parental expectation'.
That's good.

ALEX sighs.

ALEX

Ready?

QUINN

Of course. My knowledge is as boundless as the sea...and my love for caffeinated beverages as deep.

ALEX scoffs. They enter the exam room.
